

Privacy Policy LCCRA.CA website

1.0 Scope

This privacy policy has been compiled to better serve those who are concerned with how their 'Personally identifiable information' (PII) is being used online. PII, as used in privacy law and information security, is information that can be used on its own or with other information to identify, contact, or locate a single person, or to identify an individual in context. Please read our privacy policy carefully to get a clear understanding of how we collect, use, protect or otherwise handle your Personally Identifiable Information in accordance with our website.

2.0 What personal information do we collect from the people that join the LCCRA or visit our website ?

When joining our organization or registering on our site (a planned future enhancement), you may be asked to enter your:

Name

Mailing address

Phone number

Town

Postal Code

e-mail address (optional)

Other details to help you with your experience (e.g. interests, hobbies, date you moved into this community etc.)

2.1 When do we collect information?

We collect information from you when you become an LCCRA member or register on our site (see above).

2.2 How do we use your information?

We may use the information we collect from you when you become an LCCRA member or register (see above):

- To generate a telephone directory (updated annually) of Loyalist Estates residents for the use of LCCRA members
- To send periodic emails regarding items of general interest to Loyalist Estates residents
- To send the electronic version of our members' newsletter, the Honking Goose
- To administer a contest, promotion, survey or other site feature.

Information in the telephone directory as well as e-mail addresses will not be publicly available on the LCCRA web-site.

3.0 How do we protect visitor information?

Your personal information is contained behind secured networks and is only accessible by a limited number of persons and are required to keep the information confidential. In addition, at this time, no personal information is stored on the web-site.

4.0 Do we use 'cookies'?

We do not use cookies for tracking purposes

You can choose to have your computer warn you each time a cookie is being sent, or you can choose to turn off all cookies. You do this through your browser (like Internet Explorer) settings. Each browser is a little different, so look at your browser's Help menu to learn the correct way to modify your cookies.

If you disable cookies off, some features will be disabled that make your site experience more efficient and some of our services will not function properly.

5.0 Third Party Disclosure

We do not sell, trade, or otherwise transfer to outside parties your personally identifiable information. This does not include website hosting partners and other parties who assist us in operating our website, conducting our business, or servicing you, so long as those parties agree to keep this information confidential. We may also release your information when we believe release is appropriate to comply with the law, enforce our site policies, or protect ours or others' rights, property, or safety.

However, non-personally identifiable visitor information may be provided to other parties for marketing, advertising, or other uses.

5.1 Third party links

Occasionally, at our discretion, we may include or offer third party products or services on our website. These third party sites have separate and independent privacy policies. We therefore have no responsibility or liability for the content and activities of these linked sites. Nonetheless, we seek to protect the integrity of our site and welcome any feedback about these sites.

5.2 Google

Google's advertising requirements can be summed up by Google's Advertising Principles. They are put in place to provide a positive experience for users.
